A NOTE FROM OUR FOUNDER

The table has always been at the heart of my home. It's where my family gathers, conversations unfold, and even the simplest moments become memories we carry with us.

When I created Table Theory, my goal was to make hosting feel joyful, not overwhelming. Our linens are designed to simplify cleanup, elevate the table, and support the moments that bring people together.

Thank you for welcoming Table Theory into your stores and spaces. We're honored to be part of the way your customers gather, celebrate, and connect.
